

Computing

This term, the children will be learning how to use Spreadsheets in Microsoft Excel. They will learn how to collect and input data, how to format a worksheet and how to use formulas to calculate.

English

This half term, the children will be introduced to their new topic – WW2. They will be reading the following books: The Boy in Striped Pyjamas, Goodnight Mr Tom and Carrie's War. The children will be writing informal letters focusing on the main events of their set texts. The children will use structural and language features to form their letters.

In Grammar, the children will recap apostrophes for possession and contractions, semi-colons progressive and perfect tenses.

Science / Outdoor Education

This term, Year 6 will be learning all things electricity. They will be identifying insulators and conductors. They will learn how to represent a simple circuit in a diagram using recognized symbols. Children will build circuits for specific purposes and to investigate what happens when they change components in a circuit.

Spanish

This half-term, the children will be learning about the main cities in Spain and points of the compass.

Year 6 Curriculum Map Spring 1

Maths

This half term, the children will be identifying and reasoning with Roman Numerals and negative numbers. They will also be solving and reasoning with the order of operations. We will be continuing to practise our recall of times table facts and complete weekly arithmetic tests.

RESPECT

Year 6 will be exploring stress and pressure and how to manage and deal with this.

Music

To compose using effective sound sources, dynamics, tempo, rhythm.

Physical Education

This half term pupils will play hockey. They will look at putting their skills of dribbling, passing and shooting into small games and start to look at tactics. Pupils will also develop their gymnastic skills this half term with the focus on developing accuracy of their rolls, balances and methods of travel.

History

Year 6 will begin learning about the key events of World War Two. They will start to explore key events as well as what led Britain to victory against Germany.