

Computing

This term, the children will be learning about networks and the internet. The children will learn how we are connected digitally, who owns websites and what the internet is made of.

Design Technology

In D&T this term, the children will be making a toy Wump with a focus on pneumatics. They will create a pneumatic system for a desired motion. After they have made their toy, they will evaluate their design and the design process.

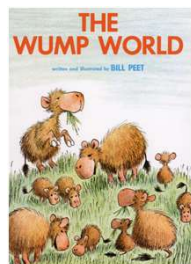

Spanish

Within Spanish this term the children will be learning about different Spanish stories involving animals. They will be retelling the stories orally and using actions prompts.

English

The children will be writing their own diary entries, non-chronological reports and haiku poems. In grammar, the children will be looking at homophones, subordination and subordinating conjunctions also punctuation such as inverted commas. Within reading the children will be covering a variety of skills for example, making inferences on thoughts and motives, making predictions and summarising the main ideas.

Year 3 Curriculum Map Spring 2

Maths

In maths, the children will be looking at discrete data, creating and interpreting from tally charts, pictograms and bar charts. the children will then move onto measure where they will be reading and writing time in different formats and calculating time durations.

Physical Education

This term pupils will be exploring net, court and wall games. The focus will firstly be on developing the core skills such as agility, balance, co-ordination needed for these. Then we will progress to looking at flight pathways and ball familiarisation practises using a tennis racket. In addition, Year 3, students will be introduced to the Bosu Balance Trainer to help develop their basic balance and coordination skills. They will engage in activities that encourage them to maintain stability on the Bosu, focusing on balance while performing simple movements such as marching, squatting, or stepping side to side.

Geography

This term the children will continue their ongoing learning about volcanoes and earthquakes. This term the children will be focusing on specific case studies exploring the significance of said eruptions or earthquakes.

Music

The children will be learning to sing with good technique using the skills of clear diction a range of dynamics and pitch. They will be learning to perform songs about volcanoes.

Religious Education

Within this half term, the children will be exploring and identifying how different religions remember their roots. They will also be learning about how different religions are loyal and steadfast.

RESPECT

Within respect this term, the children will be learning about the importance of looking after themselves focusing on diets and animals.

Science / Outdoor Education

During the spring term, the children will be exploring plants. They will be looking at the life cycle of a plant, the pollination process and how plants can move water.